HIGH NAVAL OFFICIAL STATEMENT ABSOLVES UNITED PRESS FROM BLAME FOR THE REPORT

U. S. CENSORS PASSED REPORT OF THE ARMISTICE HAVING BEEN SIGNED BUT HELD UP THE EXPLANATION

ADMIRAL WILSON TAKES BLAME

BREST, FRANCE, Nov. 8.—Admiral Henry B. Wilson, U. S. N., Commander of the American Forces in French waters, today made the following statement:

"The statement of the United Press relative to the signing of the armistice was made public from my office on the basis of what appeared to be official and authoritative information. I am in a position to know that the United Press and its representatives acted in perfect good faith and the premature announcement was the result of an error by which the agency was in no wise responsible."

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Yesterday's announcement of the signing of the armistice between Germany and the Allies was made public by Admiral Henry B. Wilson at Brest and filed by the United Press with the Admiral's approval. This was the announcement received by the United Press from Roy W. Howard, delivered to the United Press, stated that the armistice announcement was not confirmable. This latter message filed by Howard did not show, in the form in which it was delivered, whether it was sent yesterday or whether it had been held up.

Howard's cable showed that Wilson had acted in good faith, saying that the message was official and had his approval, before being filed for the United Press in New York.

The United Press has asked the Censorship Bureau to ascertain how long Howard's messages, stating that Admiral Wilson authorized the announcement and also that the message was without confirmation, were held up by the censorship. There is reason to believe that the messages were held up almost 24 hours before they were released.

HAGS COMMUNIQUE

LONDON, Nov. 8, 1:10 a. m.—Sharp fighting yesterday in the neighborhood of Ecables, and Limon-Fontaine, south of Hautmont, according to Hags' communication today.

THE FRENCH REPORT

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Our advance was renewed this morning on the whole front the French war office announced today. Our advance elements reached about 1 to 2 miles north of Bethel. Further to the right we took Fresno (a mile southwest of Sedan) this morning and have penetrated the out-kits of Sedan. Our prisoners yesterday morning reached 1500.

The above cable was filed in Paris at 12:30 by John G. Gard, member of the staff of the United Press Paris bureau.

MORNING STATEMENT OF THE UNITED PRESS—EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In view of the British and French official statements indicating continued fighting on the western front, the United Press issued the following statement from its general offices here:

"Our cable received from Paris at noon yesterday, signed by Roy W. Howard, President of the United Press and Wm. Philip Simms, Manager of the Paris bureau, reporting the signing of the Allied and German armistice, was written in plain English and permits of no possible misconception as received in this office. No censor could have any doubt as to its plain meaning. On receipt of the second message from Brest we have received no further word from Mr. Howard or Mr. Simms, although messages were dispatched to them as early as one p. m. yesterday.

"Following is the cable in its original form as transmitted to the United Press:

"Unpress New York Urgent Armistice Allied German signed 11 morning hostilities ceased 2 afternoon Sedan taken smothering by Americans—Howard-Simms"

"Unpress is the cable address of the United Press. The word Urgent merely indicates the message was filed at the urgent rate. Morning and afternoon mean this morning and this afternoon and are accepted as cable contractions. Investigation is being made and we expect to clear the matter up within a short time."

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Elizabeth Kennard, widow of the late Richard Kennard, died at the family home at 6 o'clock this morning after a lingering illness following a paralytic stroke suffered several months ago.

Mrs. Kennard was visiting at Puxatunway when stricken and when she recovered sufficiently was brought to her home here where everything that medical skill could devise and tender nursing could accomplish was done for her but to no avail. Her life slowly ebbed away and death released her from her sufferings at the hour stated.

Mrs. Kennard was a devout Christian woman and a lifelong member of the Episcopal church. She lived a consistent life and was the ideal wife and mother. She was idolized in her home and her death is a sad blow to her loving sons and daughters.

She was in her 76th year and is survived by five sons and two daughters: viz. John B. and Richard, of Clearfield, Amos, William and Frank, of Roanoke, Va.; George, of Stanton, Va.; Mrs. Charles Glass, of Emporium, Pa.; and Mrs. Charles Tate, of Clearfield.

HUN DELEGATION HEAR TERMS READ; SUSPENSION OF ARMS IS REFUSED

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The German delegates entered General Foch's headquarters at nine a. m. Paris time today, the State Department announced shortly before noon. If it is found that the armistice should be referred to Berlin Germany will be allowed 72 hours in which to make reply.

PARIS, 1:36 P. M.—The German delegates arrived this morning at Marshal Foch's headquarters. The contents of the armistice terms were read aloud and then handed to the enemy delegates. The latter asked suspension of arms which was refused. Germany, it is stated, will have 72 hours in which to reply. The enemy representatives spent the night in a house prepared for them at Foch's headquarters. They proceeded to Foch's temporary headquarters probably in the region of the Aisne this morning.

PARIS, Nov. 7, 10:50 P. M.—A white flag was spread across the Boulevard newspaper map which has been keeping progress with the advance on the western front with flags. Great crowds gathered in front of the newspaper offices.

POINTS ABOUT PEACE TREATIES

As a rule formal ratification of a peace treaty is expected and necessary to make it valid.

Peace treaties are usually written by hand throughout, sealed with many seals and bound with green silk ribbon.

Peace treaties bind the signatory powers either when they are signed or when they are ratified. They bind individuals when they receive news that such treaties have been made.

The rulers of the signatory powers don't affix their signatures or seals to peace treaties entered into by them. This important ceremony is carried out by specially accredited peace commissioners.

Each nation entering into a peace agreement is bound by all of the terms agreed upon by its peace commissioners, provided it cannot be shown that such commissioners did not expressly violate the instructions given them.

The effect of a peace treaty is to put an end not only to a war, but also to all complaints relating to the subject for which war was undertaken. A new war can be undertaken for similar causes of complaint, but not for the same. The peace is an oblivion of all past difficulties.

Latin originally was the language in which all peace treaties involving Christian powers were written. Later French was generally adopted as the language for such agreements, but nowadays it is customary for copies of the treaty to be prepared in the language of each of the signatory powers.

Each signatory power is given an original copy of the peace treaty. In addition, it is customary to make and sign several certified copies of the treaty for convenience. The original copies are kept securely locked up in the archives of the different countries, while the certified copies are used for printing from and for reference.

It is customary for each copy of a peace treaty to begin with the words, "In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity." It is also customary, however, to make exception in the case of Turkey and other Mohammedan countries, the copies of their treaties being altered to read: "In the Name of Allah the Almighty God."

Peace treaties are not written straight across the page, or pages, like ordinary documents. They are written in parallel columns, each column being in the language of one of the signatory powers. The text of each of these columns is an exact translation of the text of all the other columns, and the utmost care is taken in the selection of words that will convey identical shades of meaning.

CARRIER BOY HAD LEG BROKEN

Thomas Shillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shillen, of Gulch avenue, and one of the Progress' carrier boys, was run down by an automobile on Third avenue in front of Fred B. Leavitt's residence at 9 o'clock last night and had a leg broken in two places just above the ankle.

The car which ran over the lad was driven by a young lady and when her attention was called to the fact that she had injured him she had the lad placed in her car and taken home but failed to give her name or acknowledge the fact she was responsible for the damage done.

The lad was taken to the hospital this morning where after an X-ray examination the fracture was reduced.

NY OBJECTIVE

All Creeds Unite in $170,500,000 War Work Campaign To Maintain Morale and Put Allies Over the Rhine

Leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish Clergymen Appeal to America to Support Men in Uniform by Aiding Seven Big War Work Organizations Which are Making Drive for $170,500,000 to Enable Them to Continue Varied Activities.

AFTER responding unanimously to General Pershing's call for the American clergy to keep the spirit of Americans "white hot with patriotism," leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergies have joined their voices in urging unified support of the fighters at the front, in camp and on the seas, through the United War Work Campaign, launched by the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council with K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army to raise $170,500,000 for continued service work.

All creeds are represented in the identical plea for our fighters made by Bishops Peter J. Muldoon and William T. Russell, of the Catholic hierarchy, Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson and Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, noted Protestant clergymen, and Dr. Cyrus Adler, acting president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of the Free Synagogue, New York.

Churches Will Respond

Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, Chairman of the War-Time Commission of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, gives the following assurance that the churches will do that part to aid the United War Work Campaign:

"The call of the President and the loyalty which all good citizens owe to it, the needs of the men in the army and navy and the desire of the people at home to do everything in their power to help them, and the duty of unity in the great task undertaken by the nation in the war, call for the hearty support of the United War Work Campaign by all the forces of the country. The churches will be foremost to respond to this call."

Welcomed by Catholics

Bishop Peter J. Muldoon, Chairman of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says:

"The plan of one common drive for war work funds for all the related war activities is heartily welcomed by the National Catholic

War Council. It enables us all to stand on the common platform of American citizenship and brings out clearly that the aim of all these organizations is one and the same—to aid the men in the service. Questions of religious differences have no place in such a service.

"The United War Work Campaign offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

Under One Banner

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, the "fighting rabbi" of the Free Synagogue, New York City, says:

"The American soldier represents life's highest aims and noblest purposes—to establish justice between nations, great and small, and to end the reign of the sword. His cause is holy; therefore the Church of God, Jewish and Christian alike, may bless him and must serve him. The Army and the Churches of America are under one banner—that of liberating service."

Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, President of Princeton Theological

Seminary, formerly Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, says:

"The action of the War-Time Commission of Churches approving the United War Work Campaign and urging generous support upon the constituent bodies, through their several churches, is a forecast of the united and wholehearted response that may be confidently expected. The churches

Links in Moral Chain

Dr. Cyrus Adler, Vice-Chairman of the Jewish Welfare Board, says:

"The men in our armies and on our ships stand together as a compact whole, and the least we at home can do is to follow their example. The seven organizations in the United War Work Drive are of equal importance to the entire military forces, just as they are essential to the constituents of their particular service. They are links in the moral chain to support our armed powers, now on the high roads of victory, with the joint purpose of averting the moral and degrading influence which war has exercised on our enemies' armies."

"The Jewish people of America have yet another opportunity, which I know they will gladly seize—to demonstrate again with their fellow citizens of all other religions."

Plea for Our Fighters Made by Bishop Muldoon and Bishop Russell, Rev. Dr. Speer, Rev. Dr. Stevenson, Rabbi Wise and Dr. Adler, Who Call Upon Nation to Back Up President Wilson—"Army and Church Under One Banner—That of Liberating Service."

will loyally comply with President Wilson's request for combined service.

"Eager to make every possible provision for strengthening the morale of the soldiers in the Allied armies, without regard to race or creed, so that victory may be sure, swift and complete, the churches may be depended upon to contribute their share and more than their share towards the promotion of the soldiers' essential welfare—physical, intellectual, moral and religious."

To Work Together

Bishop William T. Russell, one of the four members of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says:

"The harmonious action in support of the Government for recreational work for our soldiers, which the United War Work Campaign symbolizes, deserves and has ever received our heartiest co-operation. It offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

"The National Catholic War Council, which includes every variety of war work done by Catholics, was organized that it might offer the entire services of the Catholic body in co-operation with all other citizens to the support of the Government in the winning of the war. In this common drive for war funds we will follow the lead of the Government with unqualified approval and enthusiasm."

Links in Moral Chain

Dr. Cyrus Adler, Vice-Chairman of the Jewish Welfare Board, says:

"The men in our armies and on our ships stand together as a compact whole, and the least we at home can do is to follow their example. The seven organizations in the United War Work Drive are of equal importance to the entire military forces, just as they are essential to the constituents of their particular service. They are links in the moral chain to support our armed powers, now on the high roads of victory, with the joint purpose of averting the moral and degrading influence which war has exercised on our enemies' armies."

"The Jewish people of America have yet another opportunity, which I know they will gladly seize—to demonstrate again with their fellow citizens of all other religions."

UNITED WAR WORK ORGANIZATION READY

Loyal people of Clearfield county, we are called upon for the greatest service we have yet made for our boys over there. Clearfield county, outside of DuBois, must raise $115,000 as our quota of $170,000,000 to carry on the work of seven great war activities—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and Salvation Army—for the comfort of our boys.

"But the war is over. They will be coming home." Secretary Baker says that most of them will be there for a year or more and they will need the services of these different activities now more than they ever have. They all want to come home. They will be lone and homesick and the cessation of active fighting will make time heavy on their hands.

This will be the last great opportunity to uphold our boys at the front. It will mean giving more money than we have ever been asked to contribute at any single time; more than to the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Red Cross. It will mean that we will have to give not one day's wages between now and the first of March, but at least three days' wages, if we are to reach our quota.

Clearfield has never fallen down in any task like this. It will not fail at this crucial time.

The county has been divided into thirteen different districts with committees for each district who are on the field, organizing each section for the big drive next week. Literature has been distributed throughout the county.

Everybody back of it! Everyone talking it! Every one giving to the limit of their ability. It is our last chance to help our boys in a definite way. All together for your boy and my boy!

Followers are the districts and the committees:

Clearfield Borough—James P. O'Laughlin, Capt. Perkins, Ralph Jordan, Albert Bigler, P. B. Reed, Louis Shapiro, Prof. Zerfass.

HIGH NAVAL OFFICIAL STATEMENT ABSOLVES UNITED PRESS FROM BLAME FOR THE REPORT

U. S. CENSORS PASSED REPORT OF THE ARMISTICE HAVING BEEN SIGNED BUT HELD UP THE EXPLANATION

ADMIRAL WILSON TAKES BLAME

BREST, FRANCE, Nov. 8.—Admiral Henry B. Wilson, U. S. N., Commander of the American Forces in French waters, today made the following statement:

"The statement of the United Press relative to the signing of the armistice was made public from my office on the basis of what appeared to be official and authoritative information. I am in a position to know that the United Press and its representatives acted in perfect good faith and the premature announcement was the result of an error by which the agency was in no wise responsible."

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Yesterday's announcement of the signing of the armistice between Germany and the Allies was made public by Admiral Henry B. Wilson at Brest and filed by the United Press with the Admiral's approval. This was the announcement received by the United Press from Roy W. Howard, delivered to the United Press, stated that the armistice announcement was not confirmable. This latter message filed by Howard did not show, in the form in which it was delivered, whether it was sent yesterday or whether it had been held up.

Howard's cable showed that Wilson had acted in good faith, saying that the message was official and had his approval, before being filed for the United Press in New York.

The United Press has asked the Censorship Bureau to ascertain how long Howard's messages, stating that Admiral Wilson authorized the announcement and also that the message was without confirmation, were held up by the censorship. There is reason to believe that the messages were held up almost 24 hours before they were released.

HAIG'S COMMUNIQUE

LONDON, Nov. 8, 1:10 a. m.—Sharp fighting yesterday in the neighborhood of Ecables, and Limon-Fontaine, south of Hautmont, according to Haig's communication today.

These villages were captured with a number of prisoners. Advance on the Mons-Cane Canal continues.

THE FRENCH REPORT

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Our advance was renewed this morning on the whole front the French war office announced today. Our advance elements reached about 1 to 2 miles north of Bethel. Further to the right we took Fresno (a mile southwest of Sedan) this morning and have penetrated the out-kits of Sedan. Our prisoners yesterday morning reached 1500.

The above cable was filed in Paris at 12:30 by John G. Gard, member of the staff of the United Press Paris bureau.

MORNING STATEMENT OF THE UNITED PRESS—EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In view of the British and French official statements indicating continued fighting on the western front, the United Press issued the following statement from its general offices here:

"Our cable received from Paris at noon yesterday, signed by Roy W. Howard, President of the United Press and Wm. Philip Simms, Manager of the Paris bureau, reporting the signing of the Allied and German armistice, was written in plain English and permits of no possible misconception as received in this office. No censor could have any doubt as to its plain meaning. On receipt of the second message from Brest we have received no further word from Mr. Howard or Mr. Simms, although messages were dispatched to them as early as one p. m. yesterday.

"Following is the cable in its original form as transmitted to the United Press:

"Unpress New York Urgent Armistice Allied German signed 11 morning hostilities ceased 2 afternoon Sedan taken smothering by Americans—Howard-Simms"

"Unpress is the cable address of the United Press. The word Urgent merely indicates the message was filed at the urgent rate. Morning and afternoon mean this morning and this afternoon and are accepted as cable contractions. Investigation is being made and we expect to clear the matter up within a short time."

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Elizabeth Kennard, relict of the late Richard Kennard, died at the family home at 6 o'clock this morning after a lingering illness following a paralytic stroke suffered several months ago.

Mrs. Kennard was visiting at Puxatunway when stricken and when she recovered sufficiently was brought to her home here where everything that medical skill could devise and tender nursing could accomplish was done for her but to no avail. Her life slowly ebbed away and death released her from her sufferings at the hour stated.

Mrs. Kennard was a devout Christian woman and a lifelong member of the Episcopal church. She lived a consistent life and was the ideal wife and mother. She was idolized in her home and her death is a sad blow to her loving sons and daughters.

She was in her 76th year and is survived by five sons and two daughters viz John B. and Richard, of Clearfield, Amos, William and Frank, of Roanoke, Va. George, of Stanton, Va., Mrs. Charles Glass, of Emporium, Pa., and Mrs. Charles Tate, of Clearfield.

The latter asked suspension of arms which was refused. Germany, it is stated, will have 72 hours in which to reply. The enemy representatives spent the night in a house prepared for them at Foch's headquarters. They proceeded to Foch's temporary headquarters probably in the region of the Aisne this morning.

POINTS ABOUT PEACE TREATIES

As a rule formal ratification of a peace treaty is expected and necessary to make it valid.

Peace treaties are usually written by hand throughout, sealed with many seals and bound with green silk ribbon.

Peace treaties bind the signatory powers either when they are signed or when they are ratified. They bind individuals when they receive news that such treaties have been made.

The rulers of the signatory powers don't affix their signatures or seals to peace treaties entered into by them. This important ceremony is carried out by specially accredited peace commissioners.

Each nation entering into a peace agreement is bound by all of the terms agreed upon by its peace commissioners, provided it cannot be shown that such commissioners did not expressly violate the instructions given them.

The effect of a peace treaty is to put an end not only to a war, but also to all complaints relating to the subject for which war was undertaken. A new war can be undertaken for similar causes of complaint, but not for the same. The peace is an oblivion of all past difficulties.

Latin originally was the language in which all peace treaties involving Christian powers were written. Later French was generally adopted as the language for such agreements, but nowadays it is customary for copies of the treaty to be prepared in the language of each of the signatory powers.

Each signatory power is given an original copy of the peace treaty. In addition, it is customary to make and sign several certified copies of the treaty for convenience. The original copies are kept securely locked up in the archives of the different countries, while the certified copies are used for printing from and for reference.

It is customary for each copy of a peace treaty to begin with the words, "In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity." It is also customary, however, to make exception in the case of Turkey and other Mohammedan countries, the copies of their treaties being altered to read: "In the Name of Allah the Almighty God."

Peace treaties are not written straight across the page, or pages, like ordinary documents. They are written in parallel columns, each column being in the language of one of the signatory powers. The text of each of these columns is an exact translation of the text of all the other columns, and the utmost care is taken in the selection of words that will convey identical shades of meaning.

CARRIER BOY HAD LEG BROKEN

Thomas Shillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shillen, of Gulch avenue, and one of the Progress' carrier boys, was run down by an automobile on Third avenue in front of Fred B. Leavitt's residence at 9 o'clock last night and had a leg broken in two places just above the ankle.

The car which ran over the lad was driven by a young lady and when her attention was called to the fact that she had injured him she had the lad placed in her car and taken home but failed to give her name or acknowledge the fact he was responsible for the damage done.

The lad was taken to the hospital this morning where after an X-ray examination the fracture was reduced.

Nearly one third of all the street railway carriers in New York City are women.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Graham of Graham Place, Fourth ward, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy baby at their home last evening about the time the big celebration was on. The newcomer will be named Rodney Guy Graham and Granddad and Grandma'am Graham think he is about the finest boy in the Fourth ward.

Miss Ontha Kinch, of Juniata, who has been visiting Miss Annie Kragle of Locust street, returned to her home today.

Miss Martha Jones of Nashville has been appointed an assistant physiological chemist at Yale University.

Many women are employed about the shipyard factories in France. They are hoisted in boatswain's chairs and work on big fabric envelopes for the aircraft.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

BY MARY GRAHAM BOSSNER

THE GUACHARO.

"The Guacharo," began Daddy, but both the children interrupted him.

"Please, Daddy," said Nick, "before you tell us any more, what is it?"

"Is it an animal, a fish, a bird, a bird, an insect or a tree?" asked Nancy.

"Ah," chuckled Daddy, "I have got kind of another creature, and you two do not know of it. It's hard to get hold of something you don't know about, for you both like to study and find out all you can about birds and flowers and animals and everything that is in the great, big world."

"You have something to puzzle us now," said Nick.

"You must not only have," agreed Nancy.

"Well," said Daddy, "the Guacharo is a bird. He looks sort of like a bird, but he is not a bird. He is a Guacharo, and he is about the size of a young owl."

"Now Mr. Guacharo, please tell us one day and he asked Mrs. Guacharo and the children to come to an idea before coming to the home."

"What is an information meeting?" the children asked.

"It's a meeting where everyone tells what he is very much," said Daddy.

"How very nice!" said Nancy.

"He must have been a cross old bird," said Nick.

"Well, it was the sort of meeting where they all agreed to be cross about the same thing, and that made it better than if they had all been cross about different things. They all agreed to be cross about the same thing."

"They all agreed to be cross about the same thing," said Mrs. Guacharo.

DRUGGISTS STILL ASKED TO CONSERVE STOCKS OF VAPORUB NEEDED IN "FLU" DISTRICTS

Influenza Epidemic is Decreasing in Most Sections and the Demand is Slackening But We Are Still 18,000 Gross Behind On Orders and It Will Take Some Time to Catch Up.

THREE MILLION JARS SHIPPED DURING OCTOBER

On Monday, October 21, we advertised an advertisement to the wholesale and retail drug trade, advising that we were badly overstocked with the influenza epidemic, stating that all kinds of quantities of shipment were postponed, and requesting that VapoRub be purchased in small lots only, and that all orders be placed by mail.

At the writing, we have back orders of VapoRub to the amount of 18,000 gross jars, and we are doing our best to ship as much as possible.

SAMPLES AND INFLUENZA BOOKLETS FREE ON REQUEST

We have prepared a little folder giving all the information available so far on Spanish influenza—its symptoms and the treatment, and these will be mailed to drugists on request. We will also be glad to mail to any individual one of these booklets together with a quantity sample, free.

HOW TO USE VAPORUB IN TREATING SPANISH INFLUENZA

In every case, when a physician VapoRub should be used only in connection with the play of the internal treatment.

Apply hot, wet cloths over the throat, chest, and back between the shoulder blades to open the pores.

Lightly rub VapoRub over the entire skin in a circular motion on the neck, and cover with hot flannel cloth.

Leave the bed-covering loose around the neck, as the body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the influenza germs.

In case of head or chest cold, which often accompanies influenza, the vapors tend to break the air passages open, loosen the phlegm, and ease the breathing.

It also soothes the throat, and it soothes the skin, attracting the blood to the surface, and thus, in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO USE VAPORUB AS A PREVENTIVE

It is made made of the best of everything which will prevent Spanish influenza, excepting only these persons who are spreading the disease by coughing, sneezing and spitting, and by keeping up the bodily resistance by plenty of good food and exercise in the open air.

The Public Health Service recommends that the nasal passages be coated with a weak solution of Menthol in liquid petroleum as a protective.

For this purpose VapoRub is excellent. Just put a small portion up each nostril from time to time during the day and sniff well back into the head.

KEEP FREE FROM COLDS BY INHALING VAPORUB

Colds irritate the lining of the air passages and thus render them a much better breeding place for the germs.

At the first signs of a cold use VapoRub at once. Melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors arising, or VapoRub can be used in a regular brass steam kettle, such as most druggists carry in stock.

If this is not available, a very good substitute is an ordinary tea-kettle. Fill half-full of boiling water—put in half a tea-spoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

CONVALESCENCE

"Getting Better" is the last serious time for those who have had grippe, influenza or other severe sickness.

Something more than ordinary good food is required to build you up. A tonic is needed and for this purpose VapoRub is the best.

It is especially a very essential part of the tonic, and it is the best of all tonics.

POTTERSDALE YOUNG MAN DIES IN FRANCE

On Thursday evening, Oct. 31st, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. McGonigal, of Clinton county near Potterdale, received a telegram from the War Department conveying the sad news that their son, Raymond S. McGonigal, died in France October 8th from wounds received in action.

The young soldier trained at Camp Meade and was a member of Company B, 304 Field Signal Battalion which left for overseas duty the last of June.

The following letter was received from the Chaplain of Base Hospital No. 48:

Mrs. D. B. McGonigal, Dear Madam:

It is with most sincere sorrow I extend to you my sympathy in the loss of your son, Raymond, who gave up his life so nobly for his country's cause.

At the same time I realize that all the sympathy in the world will not bring back your son nor repay your loss, but still I hope you will obtain great consolation from knowing that he died because he bravely did a soldier's duty, and that our Lord said: "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend," will console you, and that a time goes on, the satisfaction of knowing that your son was a man to be proud of, my moderate the comfort you feel.

We buried him in our military cemetery near the hospital and Raymond became a Protestant. I send the services of Chaplain Greene to officiate at the funeral.

May God bless you and help you in this time of need.

Very respectfully,
JOSEPH MASTAGLIO,
Chaplain of Base Hospital No. 48,
American Expeditionary Force.

The Woman's Party, which has been organized in Toronto for the purpose of uniting the women of Canada for their political representation, has adopted a platform which calls for war until victory, and until a restoration, food rationing, reduction of non-essential industries, and maintenance of the present standard of living after the war, Canadian representation in the British Parliament, absolute recognition of women by the Government, equal pay for equal work, equal marriage laws, equal parental rights, immigration reforms, opportunities of education, and a housing scheme involving co-operative house-keeping.

A bronze tablet has been unveiled at Rockville Center, Long Island, in memory of Miss Winona Caroline Martin, librarian of the public library there, who shortly after her arrival in France last March was killed in a German air raid on Paris. She is believed to have been the first American woman to give her life in this war on French soil.

To be truly happy is a question of how we begin and not how we end; of what we want and not of what we have.—Steven on.

MEATLESS DISHES.

OR those who cannot eat meat and for others who will shorten the meat ration to save for our armies, the following recipes may prove helpful:

Eggplant Croquette.—Cook in salted water, then drain, peel and crush in mortar, adding bread crumbs, egg, butter, and seasoning. Cook, make into croquette, roll in beaten egg, then in crumbs, and fry in golden brown in hot fat. Serve with a brown sauce.

Needles With Peppers.—Cook sufficient needles for the family, when tender, drain and add a small can of red peppers, a can of stock or gravy, salt, pepper and a tablespoonful of butter. Simmer together for ten minutes and serve hot.

Canned Cauliflower.—Put a firm white head of cauliflower in salted water; when tender, drain and pour over it the following sauce: Melt two tablespoons of butter, add a tablespoonful of chopped onion, (so two tablespoons of butter and one of onion powder, a teaspoonful of chopped apple, cook all together then add one-half cupful each of water and milk with salt to season, pour over the cauliflower and serve at once.

Spanish Rice.—In a one-quart onion fine, add one chopped green pepper and cook ten minutes in two spoonsful of oil. Add four sliced tomatoes and a half cupful of hot water. Cook to the boiling point then add a can of rice. Cook slowly one hour, adding more water if needed to keep it moist. The rice is previously cooked before adding to this dish.

Cranes With Rice.—Scrape and cut into thick slices a dozen small crabs, cook them tender in seasoned stock to order. Make a white sauce and place the cooked crabs with cooked rice in alternate layers with the white sauce, season well, cover with buttered crumbs and bake until the crumbs are brown.

A dish of canned or preserved fruit with a simple cooky and a cup of tea makes a most satisfactory dessert.

Mr. John M. Urey,
Acting Secretary, Board of Health,
Clearfield, Pa.

November 6, 1918.

Dear Sir:—

In confirmation of my telephone conversation beg to advise you that after reviewing further figures with reference to the influenza epidemic in your community and vicinity and further checking up death reports, I feel that it would be a mistake to remove the restrictions over moving picture places, theatres, public meetings and the sale of alcoholic beverages until conditions have very materially improved in your city. This letter authorizes you, therefore, to keep such restrictive measures in force until conditions have improved.

We have had to again establish these restrictive measures in several other places.

Very truly yours,

B. F. ROYER,
Acting Commissioner,
Clearfield, Pa., November 8th, 1918.

Under the above authority, the restrictive measures will be kept in force in this Borough until such time as the Board of Health of the Borough of Clearfield shall decide that conditions warrant their removal.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Winter order cannot be obtained in the market, cut up a pint or two of inferior apples—windfalls, use time used in this way, and grind them through the meat chopper. It is a little work, to be sure, but well worth the trouble, for you may have a cupful or more of order to use in mince or for cooking ham. There is no more delicate way of staying him than to cover a thick slice of ham, or brownie it well, with order and let it simmer for an hour on the back part of the stove. The meat will be very tender and especially well flavored. Serve sprinkled with red pines.

Pickled Onions—Put small, white pickled onions in a jar after peeling them, add mixed spices and cover with good vinegar that has been boiled and cooled, using one tablespoonful of brown sugar to a quart of vinegar.

Cake Crumb Dessert—Take two cups of cake crumbs, add brown sugar to the oven. Place in short glasses or cover with fruit syrup, etc., and add a spoonful of whipped cream of milk and lard cut in bits with the fruit.

Ham Tomato Toast—Fly a table-spoonful of minced paper and half a table-spoonful of onion in two table-spoonful of butter, add two table-spoonful of flour, a spoonful of sugar, one half a spoonful of salt and a few drops of pepper, one cupful of tomato juice and a half cupful of minced ham. Serve hot on well-buttered toast.

Baked Beans With Apples—Soak and pound one and a half pounds of beans as usual, then when the skin wrinkles and curls, put them with an onion into the bean pot with a half-cupful of butter or lard, two table-spoonful of sugar and a table-spoonful of salt. Barely cover with water in which a table-spoonful of molasses and a half a spoonful of mustard have been mixed. Bake covered for three hours, then remove the cover and place overlapping slices of apple on top and bake until the apple is cooked.

My dear Mrs. Souders: We are very happy indeed to be able to verify the letter which you received some time ago from France, stating that your son was then in a hospital recovering from wounds received in action.

We have been advised by our London representative that your son was admitted to the U. S. Face Hospital No. 7 at Dartford, England on Sept. 1st, badly burned with mustard gas, and having suffered the loss of his left hand. It was found necessary to perform a second operation on your son, but on October 8, when our report left England, he was said to have

All Creeds Unite in $170,500,000 War Work Campaign To Maintain Morale and Put Allies Over the Rhine

Leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish Clergymen Appeal to America to Support Men in Uniform by Aiding Seven Big War Work Organizations Which are Making Drive for $170,500,000 to Enable Them to Continue Varied Activities.

AFTER responding unanimously to General Pershing's call for the American clergy to keep the spirit of Americans "white hot with patriotism," leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish divines have joined their voices in urging unified support of the fighters at the front, in camp and on the seas, through the United War Work Campaign, launched by the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council with K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army to raise $170,500,000 for continued service work.

All creeds are represented in the identical plea for our fighters made by Bishops Peter J. Muldoon and William T. Russell, of the Catholic hierarchy, Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson and Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, noted Protestant clergymen, and Dr. Cyrus Adler, acting president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of the Free Synagogue, New York.

Churches Will Respond

Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, Chairman of the War-Time Commission of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, gives the following assurance that the churches will do that part to aid the United War Work Campaign:

"The call of the President and the loyalty which all good citizens owe to it, the needs of the men in the army and navy and the desire of the people at home to do everything in their power to help them, and the duty of unity in the great task undertaken by the nation in the war, call for the hearty support of the United War Work Campaign by all the forces of the country. The churches will be foremost to respond to this call."

Welcomed by Catholics

Bishop Peter J. Muldoon, Chairman of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says:

"The plan of one common drive for war work funds for all the related war activities is heartily welcomed by the National Catholic

War Council. It enables us all to stand on the common platform of American citizenship and brings out clearly that the aim of all these organizations is one and the same—to aid the men in the service. Questions of religious differences have no place in such a service.

"The United War Work Campaign offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

Under One Banner

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, the "fighting rabbi" of the Free Synagogue, New York City, says:

"The American soldier represents life's highest aims and noblest purposes—to establish justice between nations, great and small, and to end the reign of the sword. His cause is holy; therefore the Church of God, Jewish and Christian alike, may bless him and must serve him. The Army and the Churches of America are under one banner—that of liberating service."

Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, President of Princeton Theological

Seminary, formerly Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, says:

"The action of the War-Time Commission of Churches approving the United War Work Campaign and urging generous support upon the constituent bodies, through their several churches, is a forecast of the united and wholehearted response that may be confidently expected. The churches will loyally comply with President Wilson's request for combined service.

"Eager to make every possible provision for strengthening the morale of the soldiers in the Allied armies, without regard to race or creed, so that victory may be sure, swift and complete, the churches may be depended upon to contribute their share and more than their share towards the promotion of the soldiers' essential welfare—physical, intellectual, moral and religious."

will loyally comply with President Wilson's request for combined service.

"Eager to make every possible provision for strengthening the morale of the soldiers in the Allied armies, without regard to race or creed, so that victory may be sure, swift and complete, the churches may be depended upon to contribute their share and more than their share towards the promotion of the soldiers' essential welfare—physical, intellectual, moral and religious."

To Work Together
Bishop William T. Russell, one of the four members of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says:

"The harmonious action in support of the Government for recreational work for our soldiers, which the United War Work Campaign symbolizes, deserves and has ever received our heartiest co-operation. It offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

"The National Catholic War Council, which includes every variety of war work done by Catholics, was organized that it might offer the entire services of the Catholic body in co-operation with all other citizens to the support of the Government in the winning of the war. In this common drive for war funds we will follow the lead of the Government with unqualified approval and enthusiasm."

Links in Moral Chain

Dr. Cyrus Adler, Vice-Chairman of the Jewish Welfare Board, says:

"The men in our armies and on our ships stand together as a compact whole, and the least we at home can do is to follow their example. The seven organizations in the United War Work Drive are of equal importance to the entire military forces, just as they are essential to the constituents of their particular service. They are links in the moral chain to support our armed powers, now on the high roads of victory, with the joint purpose of averting the moral and debasing influence which war has exercised on our enemies' armies."

"The Jewish people of America have yet another opportunity, which I know they will gladly seize—to demonstrate again with their fellow citizens of all other religions."

UNITED WAR WORK ORGANIZATION READY

Loyal people of Clearfield county, we are called upon for the greatest service we have yet made for our boys over there. Clearfield county, outside of DuBois, must raise $115,000 as our quota of $170,000,000 to carry on the work of seven great war organizations—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and Salvation Army—for the comfort of our boys.

"But the war is over. They will be coming home." Secretary Baker says that most of them will be there for a year or more and they will need the services of these different activities now more than they ever have. They all want to come home. They will be home one and home-ick and the cessation of active fighting will make time heavy on their hands.

This will be the last great opportunity to uphold our boys at the front. It will mean giving more money than we have ever been asked to contribute at any single time; more than to the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Red Cross. It will mean that we will have to give not one day's wages between now and the first of March, but at least three days' wages, if we are to reach our quota.

Clearfield has never fallen down in any task like this. It will not fail at this crucial time.

The county has been divided into thirteen different districts with committees for each district who are on the field, organizing each section for the big drive next week. Literature has been distributed throughout the county.

Everybody back of it! Everyone talking it! Every one giving to the limit of their ability. It is our last chance to help our boys in a definite way. All together for your boy and my boy!
